Circulation of Fake Currency in North-East

823. SHRI KRISHNA KUMAR BIRLA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there has been large scale circulation of fake currency notes in the country's North-East region, believed to be handi work of Pakistan's ISI and suspected to have found its way to the RBI;

(b) if so, what are the details thereof; and

(c) what action has been taken by Government to deal with the situation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI I. D. SWAMI): (a) Fake currency notes have been seized by the concerned authorities in the North-East States. However, it is yet to be established whether Pakistan has counterfeited a large amount of fake Indian currency notes.

(b) Available information pertaining to the year 1999 (upto September, 1999) is given in the enclosed statement, (see below).

(c) The Reserve Bank of India issues press releases, from time to time, to enable the public to distinguish between genuine and fake currency notes. In order to combat counterfeiting, currency notes are now printed with additional security features. The Central Bureau of Investigation has created a Special Unit for exclusive investigation of counterfeit currency notes. The Border Security Force has alerted its forward troops to be more vigilant so as to ensure that such currency notes are not smuggled into the country.
